Title: Decision-Making: Most Important Thing We Have 100% Control Over

INTRODUCTION:

Welcome to Life Change! I'm Christian Psychiatrist Dr. Karl Benzio.

BODY:

So why did Solomon wish for decision-making skills? He had the opportunity to wish for anything he desired. But if he wished for his family to be saved, for none of them to be murdered or raped, or for everyone to get along at the next family reunion, that would require God to control other people for Solomon. You see, decision-making is the most important skill and function we have 100 percent control over. Anything bigger requires God to control others; anything less isn't as powerful. If decision-making is so important, why don't we pay as much attention to it as we should? So what's your reason?
